

Documentation Required

As part of the application for Admissions, The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services requires that all F-1 (Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant - Form I-20) and J-1 (Certificate of eligibility for Exchange Visitor Form DS-2019) applicants provide evidence of adequate funds to meet the financial obligations of enrollment at a U.S. college/university.

If the student will use their own personal funds as the source of financial support, the student must provide their official bank statement showing the availability of at least $27,254 USD (undergraduate) or $25,520 (graduate) in liquid assets. Bank statements must not be more than 6 months old.

If the student will be supported by a private sponsor (such as a family member, friend or private institution), the sponsor must sign the Statement of Financial Obligation below or provide a letter declaring their relationship to the student and their intent to provide financial support throughout the student's duration of study at CSUSB. In addition, sponsors must also provide an official bank statement showing the availability of at least $27,254 USD (undergraduate) or $25,520 (graduate) in liquid assets. Bank statements must not be more than 6 months old.

If the student will be sponsored by a public agency (such as an embassy, home government, public institution or religious organization), the agency must provide official certification that the appropriate costs will be covered. Sponsorship statements must be no more than 12 months (1 year) old.
