Sponsored by:

The Center for International Studies and Programs
Gamma Lambda Chapter of Phi Beta Delta
(Society of International Scholars)
Intellectual Life and Visiting Scholars Committee
Phi Kappa Phi
Faculty Professional Development Coordinating Committee
University Diversity Committee
Teaching Resource Center
Crosscultural Center
Robert V. Fullerton Art Museum
Pfau Library
Coussoulis Arena
Santos Manuel Student Union
Career Center
Asian Studies Program
Latin American Studies Program
Asian Faculty, Staff, and Student Association
Arabic Program
Center for Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies
International Students’ Association
Humanities Program
Communication Studies Department
Sociology Department
Anthropology Department
Art Department
Department of World Languages and Literatures
Department of Geography and Environmental Studies
International Programs, College of Business and Public Administration
Department of Health Science and Human Ecology
Nursing Department
Lubos Paso Club
Muslim Students’ Association
ASI
Korean Student Association
With special thanks to these community sponsors:
Fulbright Foundation
World Affairs Council of the Inland Empire
Inland Korean-American Association
Nong Shim America, Inc.
and to the
San Manuel Band of Serrano Indians (with get-well wishes to Pauline Murillo)
Harriet Fulbright has worked tirelessly on projects related to world peace. Her focus has often been on public and private sector partnerships as vehicles for intercultural and international understanding. She has served as the Executive Director of the President’s Committee on the Arts and the Humanities.
Friday, October 29, 2010: “Celebración del Día de los Muertos.” Fullerton Art Museum, 5:30-8:30 P.M. [Sponsored by the College of Extended Learning, ASI, Pfau Library, Santos Manuel Student Union, and Latino Education and Advocacy Days.]

_El día de los muertos_ is a Mexican holiday that honors deceased family and friends. Come learn about the history and unique customs involved.

---

Wednesday, November 3, 2010. “Going Global: Study Abroad Opportunities with CSUSB.” Event Center A, Santos Manuel Student Union. 12:00-2:00 P.M. and 4:00-6:00 P.M. [Sponsored by the Center for International Studies and Programs]

CSUSB has yearlong study abroad programs in 18 countries through CSU International Programs, as well as short-term academic opportunities in Mexico, China, Taiwan, Japan, Korea, Italy, Germany, France, and Spain. Programs in other countries will also be available for summer 2011. Come find out how you can study abroad and receive academic credit at CSUSB.

---

Tuesday, November 4, 2010: Dr. Guoxia Qu, Dr. Dixon Song, and Dr. Pan Jingchang. Panel of Chinese Visiting Scholars. “Learning About China and Its Culture.” University Hall 106, 10:00-11:50 A.M. Sponsored by the Asian Studies Program; the Asian Faculty, Staff, and Student Association; the Communication Studies Department; the Humanities Program; and the Center for International Studies and Programs. Contact: Dr. Rueyling Chuang. 909-537-5780.

During fall and winter quarters (2010-11), CSUSB is hosting 14 visiting scholars from China who were invited to conduct research and develop international collaboration between their home campuses and CSUSB. A panel of three of these scholars will discuss Chinese cultural characteristics, interpersonal relationships, and writing system.

---

Thursday, November 4, 2010: Dr. Kathleen Nadeau. “The Role of the Philippine Family (Early Modernity to Post Modernity).” Temporary Classroom 017, 2:00-3:30 P.M. [Sponsored by the Lubos Paso Club, the Anthropology Department; the Asian Studies Program; the Asian Faculty, Staff, and Student Association; and the Center for International Studies and Programs. Contact: Dr. Kathy Nadeau : 909-537-5503]

How has the ancient role of the family changed as a result of the impact of colonization and globalization? Dr. Nadeau examines this question against the background of major economic transformations that have occurred in the Philippines.

---

Monday, November 8, 2010: Dr. Marion Hammarlund. “The Work of the Heifer Project.” Physical Science Building (Room 203), 11:00-11:50 A.M. [Sponsored by the Health Science and Human Ecology Department, Intellectual Life and Visiting Scholars, and the Center for International Studies and Programs. Contact: Dr. Joe Hughes. 909-357-5418.]

Heifer International helps people feed themselves. The goal of every Heifer project is sustainability. Year after year, as partner families “pass on the gift” of knowledge and one or more of their animals’ offspring to others in need, they become links in a network of hope, dignity and self-reliance that helps hundreds of others care for themselves. Get an insider’s view of this non-profit organization.

---

Tuesday, November 9, 2010: Dr. Alok Kanungo. "Indian Glass and Glass Beads: Archaeology, History, and Ethnography." Pine Room of the Lower Commons, 6:00 P.M. [Sponsored by the Anthropology Department, the Fulbright Foundation, the Art Department, Intellectual Life and Visiting Scholars, and the Center for International Studies and Programs. Contact: Dr. Peter Robertshaw. 909-537-5551]

Dr. Alok Kanungo, a Fulbright Fellow, grew up in contact with the tribal communities of Eastern India where he has documented the rich heritage of the Nagas, the Bonodos, and the Juangs. This presentation will look at the issues of technology and trade by providing historical, cultural, and anthropological perspectives on the only surviving Indo-Pacific bead production site located in Papanaidupet, India.
Programs, Commons, 12:00 – Wednesday, November 17, 2010: Dr. Marilyn Smith

Tuesday, November 16, 2010: “Filipino History Through Dance.” San Manuel Student Union Theater, 2:00-3:30 P.M. [Sponsored by the Lobos Paso Club, the Asian Studies Program; the Asian Faculty, Staff, and Student Association; the Cross Cultural Center; and the Center for International Studies and Programs. Contact: Dr. Kathy Nadeau : 909-537-5503]

One way to learn about the diverse cultures and history of the Philippines is through the study of the traditions, techniques, and methodologies of teaching dance. This performance of the Tinikling (bamboo dance) reflects the people’s love for nature. As they maneuver through large bamboo poles, the dancers imitate the grace and speed of the tinikling birds’ movements walking between grass stems, running over tree branches, or dodging bamboo traps set by rice farmers.

Tuesday, November 16, 2010: Dr. Bo Xu. “China: The Once and Developed Developing Country.”
2:00-3:30 P.M. Social and Behavioral Science-361. [Sponsored by the Department of Geography and Environmental Studies. Contact: Dr. Jeff Hackel 909-537-5562]

Dr. Bo Xu has conducted extensive research on China, her native country. She will provide cultural, geographical, and historical perspectives on this fast-growing nation.

Wednesday, November 17, 2010: Dr. Marilyn Smith-Stoner and a Panel of Students from Karlstad University, Sweden. “End of Life and Palliative Care & Use of Simulators in Nursing Education.” Panorama Room of the Lower Commons, 12:00-2:00 P.M. [Sponsored by the Nursing Department and the Center for International Studies and Programs]

Dr. Smith-Stoner and a student panel present the results of comparative international research including three-year longitudinal studies in Norway (2008) and Sweden (2009) that focus on end-of-life attitudes of nursing students in each country. This project will be integrated within the larger context of CSUSB international activities in China.

Thursday, November 18, 2010: Korean Dance Troupe from Dankook University. Santos Manuel Student Union Event Center, 7:00 PM. [Sponsored by the Center for International Studies and Programs, the Coussoulis Arena, the Cross Cultural Center, the Santos Manuel Student Union, and the Career Center] Complimentary parking.

Friday, November 19, 2010: Professors Across Borders Workshop, Pine Room, Lower Commons, 9:30 A.M.-12:00 P.M. Presentations by travel grant recipients. Information about applying for travel grants. [Sponsored by the Center for International Studies and Programs, the Teaching Resource Center, and the Faculty Professional Development Coordinating Committee]

Kelly Campbell (Psychology Department)-Canada
Andrew Crane (Music Department)-Spain
Kalra Rajrani (Geography and Environmental Studies Department)-India
Dr. Arturo Fernández-Gibert (World Languages and Literatures Department)-Spain
Dr. Shannon Siegel (Kinesiology Department)-United Kingdom
Dr. Johanna Smith (Theatre Arts Department)-Bulgaria

- All events are free. Unless otherwise indicated, campus parking fees ($5.00 per day) must be paid.
- Unless otherwise indicated, contact Rosalie Giacchino-Baker, Faculty Director of the Center for International Studies and Programs for details (909-537-7537) (rosalie@csusb.edu)